DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: V_{SPH}, paragraph 0052; V_{CEL}, paragraph 0057; V_{CPH}, paragraph 0058; V_{SRF}, V_{SPT}, paragraph 0064; V_{CRF}, V_{CPT}, paragraph 0065; V_{ITM}, paragraph 0069; and V_{BEH}, paragraph 0072. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-34 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art discloses various methods of programming and circuitry comprising "split-gate" FETs, which include first and second source/drain regions, a floating-gate electrode, and a select-gate electrode. Some of these methods of programming involve changing and controlling the voltages applied to the first and second source/drain regions between nominal and programming voltages and nominal and programming-inhibit voltages. The prior art fails to disclose a method of programming involving changing a select voltage applied to the select-gate electrode from a nominal select value to a programming-enable select value such that, in an instance where the FET is to remain in its erased condition, the select voltage starts to change from its nominal value to the programming-enable value after the second voltage starts to change from its nominal value to the programming-inhibit value and such that the FET (a) remains in the erased condition if the second voltage goes to its programming-inhibit value or (b) enters the programmed condition if the second voltage stays largely at its nominal value. The prior art also fails to disclose select-gate control circuitry that applies voltages to the select gate in the programming method described above.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Haddad et al (5,077,691) and Chen et al (5,978,267) teach the use of program-enable and program-inhibit voltages being applied to source/drain regions in methods of programming. Tuan et al (6,355,524) and Lee (5,943,261) teach structures of "split-gate" FETs, and Lee also teaches a method for programming which includes applying a lower-than-threshold voltage to the select gate to enable electron injection.
